Presentation: Waste Disposal and Landfill Capacity in North Central Texas

Michael Carleton, Arredondo, Zepeda, & Brunz LLC

Mr. Carleton will present a review of waste disposal rates and projected landfill capacity in the region and potential solid waste collaboration and regionalization options. Mr. Carleton will also provide an update on regional disposal and program changes since the last Western Area Solid Waste Workshop in May 2018.

Discussion and Roundtable

Attendees will have the opportunity to discuss local critical issues, new projects, and other items of interest, as time allows. Mr. Carleton will lead a discussion on next steps for solid waste management in the western area of the North Central Texas region.
