

Feral Hog Impact – What are the Regional Needs and is it Worth the Cost?

Brett Johnson
Senior Environmental Coordinator/Urban Biologist
Dallas Park and Recreation

Photo—Ben Sandifer

A photograph of a wooded area with a large pile of brown mulch in the foreground. The trees are mostly bare, suggesting a late autumn or winter setting. The ground is covered with green grass and fallen leaves. The text "Today's Topics" is overlaid in white with a black outline at the top center.

Today's Topics

- Dallas Hog Abatement
- Potential Impacts to YOUR City
- Regional Take Home Messages

Today's Topics

- Dallas Hog Abatement
- Potential Impacts to YOUR City
- Regional Take Home Messages

Potential Feral Hog Habitat in Dallas

2011 Texas A&M University GIS Analysis of Feral Hog Habitat

Feral Hog Damage

Feral Hog Damage

Feral Hog Damage

Feral Hog Damage

09/26/2011 12:50

Feral Hog Damage

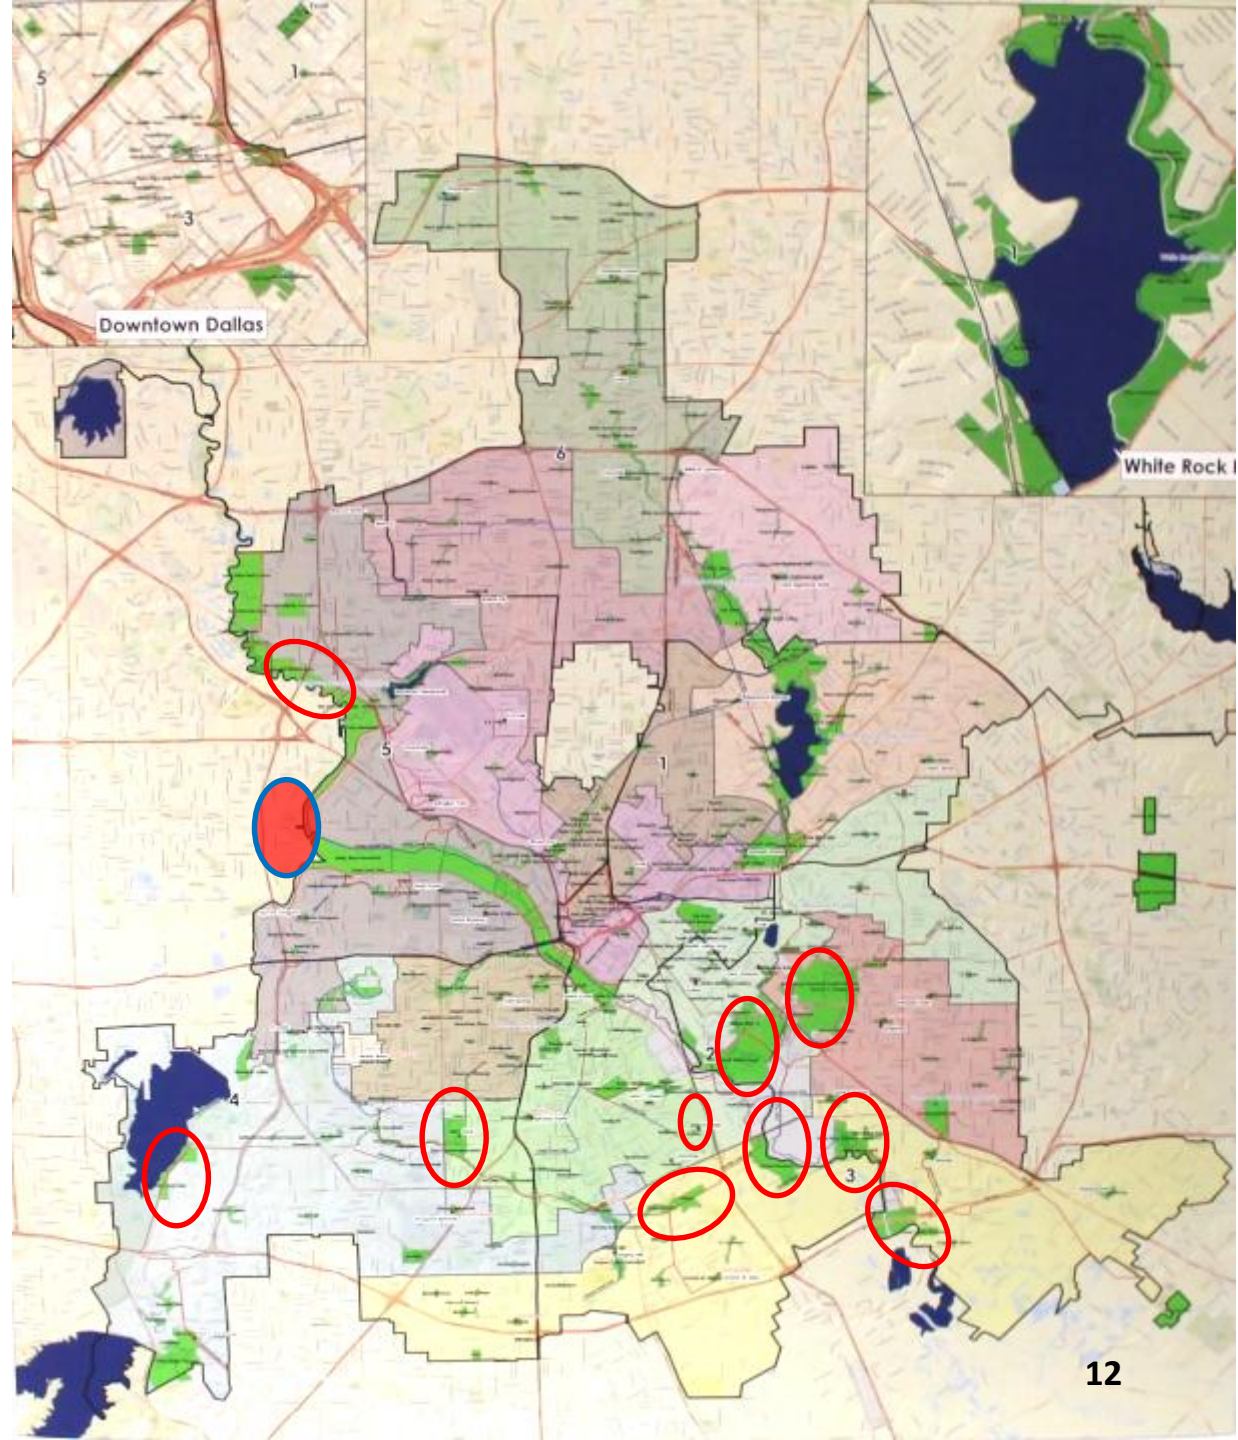

Feral Hog Damage

Impacted Parks

 Impacted park properties

Action Plan--2016

- Private trapper
- 12 month contract
- Limited scope area
- Expressed expectations on professionalism and humane treatment
- Park and Recreation Department Biologist oversight
- Public outreach

Trapping Areas

- Access to areas
- High hog numbers or extensive damage
- Limited scope of area
 - Grover C. Keeton Golf Course
 - Joppa Preserve
 - Great Trinity Forest Trails

Trapping Methodology

- 20' baited corral trap
- Real time trap surveillance
 - Maximize efficiency
 - Reduce non-targets
 - Minimize trap time
- Remove entire sounder
- Trailer removal
- Humane considerations

Photo—Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service

Compliance and Oversight

- Pre-bid tour with stated expectations
- Biologist receives photos when baiting is active
- Biologist receives photos when trap becomes active
- Biologist receives photos of ALL pigs captured
- City provided with receipts of all pigs delivered to holding and/or processing facility
- Random spot checks of trapping locations by biologist

Photo—Ben Sandifer

Results

- ~100 pigs removed from select sites*
- Reduced turf and trail shoulder damage
- Reduced citizen complaints
- Reduced standing water puddles

JAGER PRO M 12/15/16 18:51:41 054°F P5

Dallas City-wide Plan

- February 2017—City Council approved contract
- City-wide steering committee—meet quarterly
- City-wide feral hog abatement plan departments
 - Dallas Water Utility
 - Sanitation
 - Trinity Watershed Management
 - Park and Recreation
 - Aviation
- Same trapping protocol

The screenshot shows a news article from FOX 4. The main headline is "Dallas officials approve feral hog trap and removal program". Below the headline is a video player with the title "Feral Hog Problem" and a play button. The video player shows a man in a field setting a trap. Below the video player, there is a blue banner with the text "FERAL HOG PROBLEM". At the bottom of the page, there is a byline "By: FOX4News.com Staff" and social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, Google+, YouTube, and Email. The page also includes a timestamp: "POSTED: FEB 23 2017 06:07PM CST" and "UPDATED: FEB 23 2017 06:20PM CST".

Today's Topics

- Dallas Hog Abatement
- Potential Impacts to YOUR City
- Regional Take Home Messages

Rural Damage is Well Documented

- Agricultural Crop Damage
 - Row Crops
 - Pasture
 - Timber
- Livestock Depredation
 - Lambs, Kids & Calves
- Diseases

Rural Damage is Well Documented

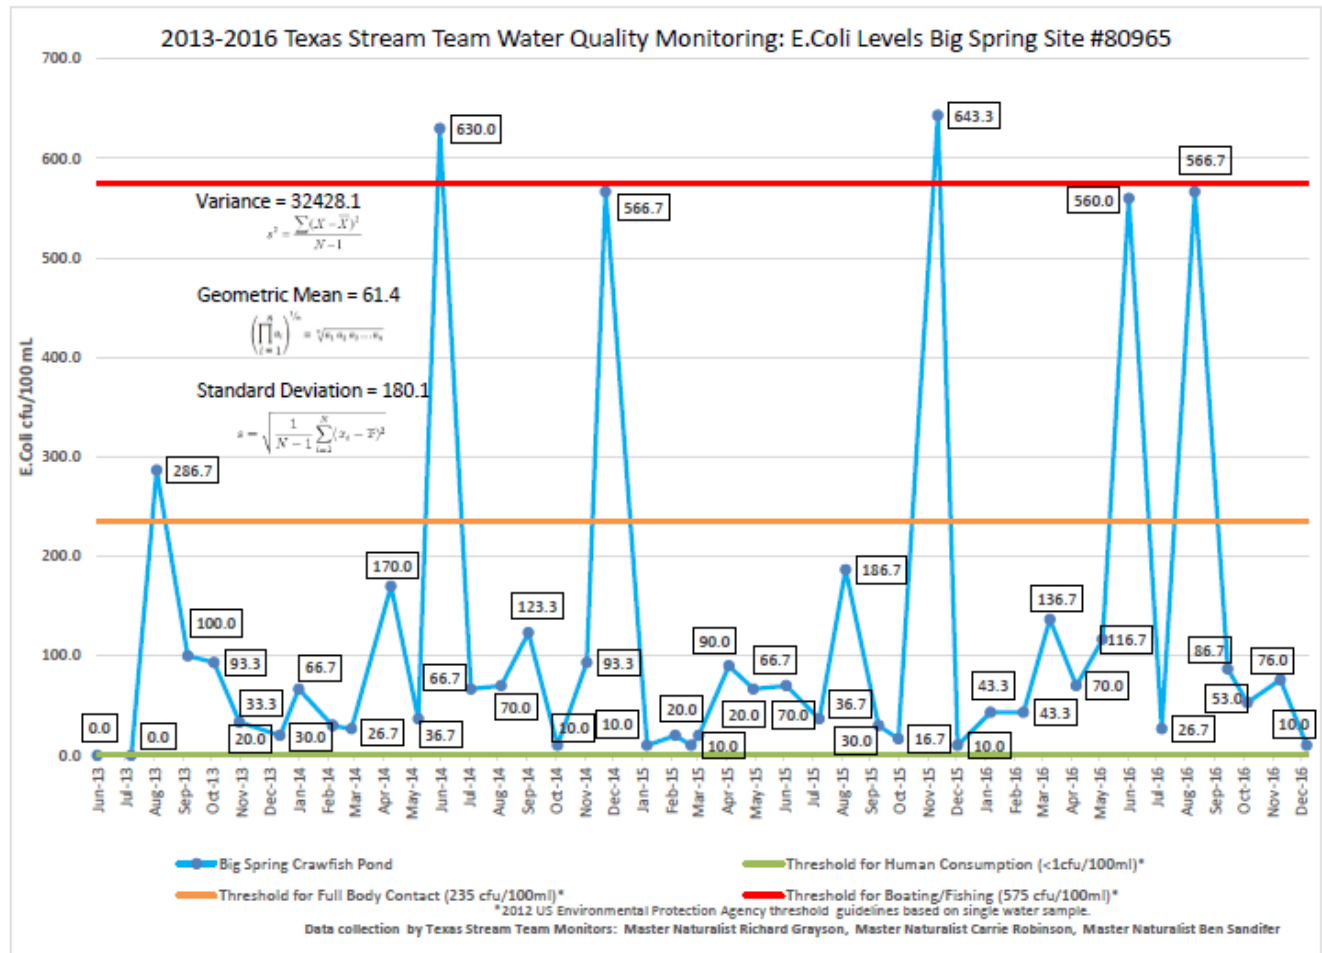

- Property Damage (Infrastructure)
 - Tractors & Other Equipment
 - Fences
 - Roads
 - Dikes
 - Etc.

Ecological Damage is Well Documented

- Native Plant Communities
- Native Wildlife Species
- Soil Erosion*
- Water Quality*

Big Spring, Dallas

Urban Damage is Not Well Documented

But is MAGNIFIED

Property Damage Impacts

- Sprinkler Systems
- Lawns
- Gardens
- Ornamental Landscaping
- Fences

Damage to Infrastructure

- Undermining
 - Roads
 - Levees
 - Flood Control Gates

Cultural & Recreational Damages

- Athletic Fields
- Golf Courses
- Cemeteries
- Archeological/
Historical Sites

Water Quality Impacts

- Sedimentation
- Bacteria Levels

Transportation Related Costs

- Automobile Collisions
- Train Collisions
- Airplane Collisions

Human Safety

- Attacks
- Zoonotic Diseases

MailOnline

Home News Sport TV&Showbiz Femail Health Science&Tech Money Deba

News 10 connect 10 connect news | Headlines | Pictures | Most read | News Board

Pack of wild boar attack partygoers on woodland walk

By DAILY MAIL REPORTER
Last updated at 9:44 AM on 15th December 2009

10CONNECTS.COM
Tampa Bay, FL

Home News Weather Traffic Sports Extras

VISIT OUR SITE FAMILY: METROMIX MOMS LIKE ME STUDIO10

Comment, blog & share photos
Log in | Become a member | Search people

Wild pig attack - in St. Petersburg!

Phil Landeros • 14 months ago

Comments (5) Recommend (2) Print Email Larger

Public Perception Costs

- Fear Factor
- Proactive vs. Reactive Control Program*

Nonlethal Hog Control Costs

- Exclusion
- Harassment
- Contraception

Still Doing
Damage

Lethal Hog Control Costs

- Labor
- Trapping Costs
- Euthanasia Costs
- Disposal Costs

Public Relations

Today's Topics

- Dallas Hog Abatement
- Potential Impacts to YOUR City
- Regional Take Home Messages

Areas shown in green indicate suitable habitat for feral hogs, comprising 79% of the land mass in Texas—Texas A&M University, 2011

Collaboration

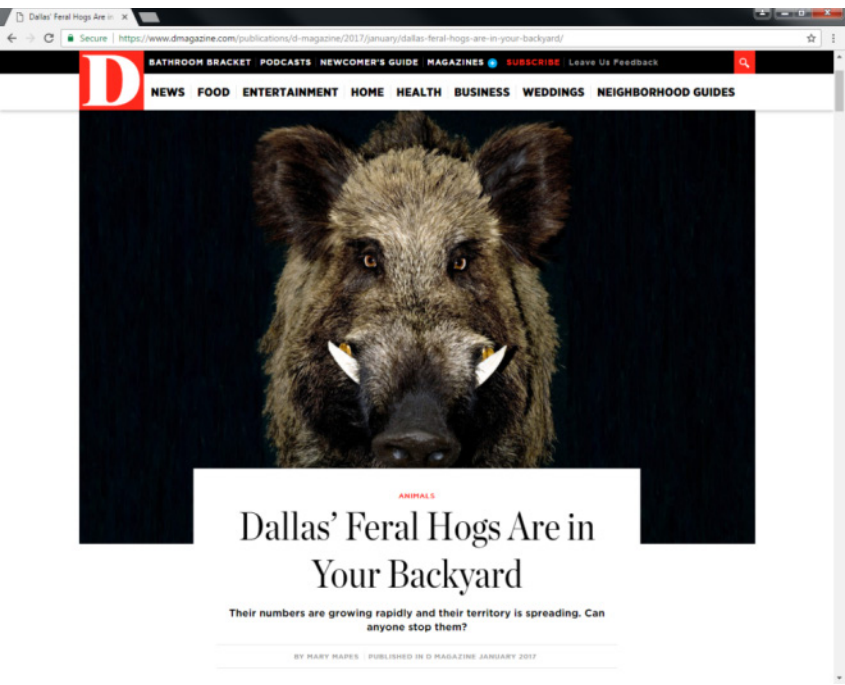

Information and Resources

BE PROACTIVE-----START A PLAN OF ACTION

Educate

The Media

General Public

Ben Sandifer @Ben_Sandifer · Apr 23
Dallas Parks and Recreation Urban Biologist Brett Johnson 4/23/17 talking about feral hog trapping program specifics at #EDTx17

8

City Leadership

A photograph of a wooded area with a large pile of brown mulch in the foreground. The trees are mostly bare, suggesting a late autumn or winter setting. The ground is covered with green grass and fallen leaves. The text "Today's Topics" is overlaid in white with a black outline at the top center.

Today's Topics

- Dallas Hog Abatement
- Potential Impacts to YOUR City
- Regional Take Home Messages

Feral Hog Impact – What are the Regional Needs and is it Worth the Cost?

Brett Johnson
Senior Environmental Coordinator/Urban Biologist
Dallas Park and Recreation

Photo—Ben Sandifer