Comparison of the 2000 and 2010 Census Urbanized Areas

For the 2010 Census, an urban area will comprise a density settled core of non-institutionalized urban population and adjacent territory identified according to criteria must encompass at least 2,500 people, at least 1,500 of which reside outside institutional group quarters. The Census Bureau identifies two types of urban areas:

1. Urban Clusters (2010): of at least 2,500 and less than 10,000 people.
2. Urbanized Areas (2010): of at least 10,000 people.
