Planners Seek Input on Proposed Changes to Funded Transportation Projects
North Texans can review, give input on recommendations online

March 23, 2015 (Arlington, Texas) – Developing transportation solutions for the many regional transportation needs involves collaboration and public input that guide decisions as projects move from an idea to a detailed plan to secured funding and eventually construction. North Texans are encouraged to review and comment on the latest set of changes to funded transportation projects moving toward completion.

A comprehensive list of funded transportation projects through 2018 is maintained in the Transportation Improvement Program (TIP). Projects with committed funds from federal, state and local sources are included in the TIP. To maintain an accurate project listing, this document is updated on a regular basis. The current set of proposed project modifications are available for public review and comment at www.nctcog.org/input.

While the TIP is a forward-looking list of projects, planners are also looking back at transportation investments in 2014. The Annual Listing of Obligated Projects is published as an update, and it is also available at www.nctcog.org/input. Each year, NCTCOG, in consultation and coordination with the Texas Department of Transportation and public transportation agencies, compiles a listing of obligated projects, including investments in roadways, transit, maintenance, pedestrian walkways and bicycle transportation facilities, for which federal funds were obligated in the preceding fiscal year.
