Registration

Conference registration is open! Registration is free and by signing up you gain access to over 150 educational sessions including lively panel discussions, dynamic roundtables, outstanding plenary sessions, special trainings, film screenings, book signings, and more.

Scholarships

A limited number of travel scholarships are available to help defray the costs of attending Brownfields 2009. Eligible applicants include elected and appointed employees of tribal, state, and local governments as well as employees of nonprofit and community organizations and academic institutions. The scholarships will cover the rooming costs for three nights in New Orleans at the conference hotel. Go to www.brownfields2009.org to apply. The deadline for travel scholarship applications is June 15, 2009. For questions about the program, please contact Sheritha Wright at swright@icma.org or 202.962.3533.

Poster Gallery

The Poster Gallery is a popular venue for sharing information on community brownfields redevelopment projects, new technologies for assessing and cleaning sites, and other news on brownfields redevelopment. Ideas for poster presentations can be submitted to Cory Fleming at cflaming@icma.org.

Exhibit Hall

Consider the Brownfields 2009 Exhibit Hall which features nearly 20 hours of exhibit time with at least three "dedicated" events to draw all participants into the exhibit hall with no concurrent events. Your booth will get plenty of uninterrupted face-time with the over 5000 attendees.

Sponsorships

Brownfields 2009, with more than 5,000 decision makers from the private sector, local, state and federal agencies, nonprofit and community groups, and academia, is the largest national event focused on redeveloping brownfield properties and creating more sustainable communities. We also invite you to discuss other sponsorship opportunities that go beyond those presented here or allow us to design a custom sponsorship package for your company.

Endorsers

Conference endorsers are companies, organizations, and agencies that support the National Brownfields Conference by offering grassroots marketing and outreach to their members, clients, and constituents. Help support the Brownfields Conference by signing up today!
