CHISHOLM TRAIL DISPOSAL

The northwest DFW region needs additional landfill capacity

Regional forecasts estimate that there will not be enough landfill space to support the northwest Dallas-Fort Worth area by 2037. Additional waste capacity is essential to managing the additional waste generated from population growth and keeping costs affordable for residents and businesses.

What is the Chisholm Trail Disposal?

Chisholm Trail Disposal (CTD) is a turnkey waste management facility designed to serve the construction and demolition disposal needs of Wise, Tarrant, Denton, and Parker Counties. CTD is currently a soil mining operation that will be repurposed for the construction and demolition waste disposal facility.

After a lengthy and rigorous permitting process with the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ), CTD Type IV C&D landfill will open to provide long term C&D disposal needs. CTD will save valuable Type I MSW landfill space from being consumed with construction and demolition waste.

Types of waste accepted:

- Construction and demolition waste
- Concrete, brick, rock, wood, paper, plastics, cardboard
- Furniture, roofing shingles and tiles, brush, and yard waste

Types of waste not accepted:

- Household trash, batteries, used oil
- Tires, appliances, electronics, TVs
