School Programs	Education programs or supportive services in traditional public schools and detention/corrections education settings to encourage youth to remain in school; or alternative learning programs to support transition to work and self-sufficiency, and to enhance coordination between correctional programs and youth's local education programs to ensure the instruction they receive outside school is aligned with that provided in their schools, and that any identified learning problems are communicated.
Truancy Prevention	Education programs and/or related services designed to prevent truancy including prevention services for children considered at-risk of entering the juvenile justice system and intervention services for juveniles engaged in misconduct.

GENERAL VICTIM ASSISTANCE GRANT PROGRAM

ACTIVITY	ACTIVITY DESCRIPTION
Crisis Services	Emergency services provided to help victims during the crisis phase. Typical services include hotline, crisis counseling, phone and in-person information and/or referrals, accompaniment, advocacy for all necessary crisis procedures (medical, law enforcement, legal, shelter, etc.), transportation, emergency financial assistance, crime victim compensation filing, etc.
Forensic Interviews	Evidentiary interviews with survivors of abuse conducted by a trained professional in a friendly environment. Interviews may be videotaped and may allow for input from representatives of diverse agencies. One comprehensive interview is preferred in order to reduce the potential for further victim trauma. Results of the interview should be used not only for law enforcement and prosecution purposes but also for social services, personal advocacy, case management, and mental health purposes. Interviews should be conducted in the context of a multidisciplinary investigation and diagnostic team or in a specialized setting such as a child advocacy center. The interviewer must be trained to conduct interviews appropriate to the development age and abilities of the children and vulnerable adults. The agency may not be a prosecution or law enforcement organization.
Legal Advocacy	Survivors are identified soon after the offense, provided information on victims rights (e.g., restitution, crime victim compensation), and provided comprehensive crisis and follow-up support needed to keep them engaged in the investigation and prosecution process. May include filing temporary restraining orders, injunctions, and other protective orders, elder abuse petitions, and child abuse petitions but does not include criminal prosecution or the employment of attorneys for non-emergency purposes, such as custody disputes, civil suits, etc. Those opting not to prosecute may receive required "education" about their options in an effort to reduce fear of testifying.
Multi-Disciplinary Teams and Case Coordination	Representatives of several agencies meet regularly to discuss common cases and share information to enhance investigation, prosecution, and victim restoration. Cases are followed through in this manner to closure. Participating agencies may include Child Protective Service, law enforcement, prosecutors' offices, Sexual Assault Nurse Examiners or other medical personnel, mental health professionals, etc.
Peer Support Groups	Regular meetings of survivors experiencing similar types of traumas providing mutual peer support.
Professional Therapy and Counseling	Individual, group, and family therapy/counseling provided by a licensed professional therapist/counselor, including the use of diagnostic and treatment instruments, and psychological/psychiatric evaluations. May include specialized types of therapy such as animal therapy, play therapy, and art therapy.
Program Evaluation and Assessment	Evaluation of criminal justice programs and assessment of organizational or system effectiveness, needs, and/or appropriate responses.
Protective Order Assistance	Legal representation is provided by program staff and/or staff attorneys to obtain protective orders and assistance may be provided by law enforcement personnel, prosecution staff or other service providers. Services may be available at non-traditional locations and times.
Shelter	Shelter programs provide a safe place for victim / survivors and their children. Other services include food, clothing, transportation, and service referrals.
Victim-Offender Meetings	Meetings between the survivor and the offender who perpetrated the crime against the survivor. At a minimum grantees must consider: (a) the safety and security of the survivor; (b) the benefit of therapeutic value to the survivor; (c) the procedures for ensuring that participation of the survivor and offender are voluntary and that everyone understands the nature of any meeting or other activity; (d) the provision of appropriate support and accompaniment for the survivor; (e) appropriate debriefing opportunities for the survivor after a meeting; (f) the credentials of the facilitators; and (g) the opportunity for a survivor to withdraw from the process at any time.

RESIDENTIAL AND COMMUNITY-BASED SERVICES FOR VICTIMS OF COMMERCIAL SEXUAL EXPLOITATION*

ACTIVITY	ACTIVITY DESCRIPTION
CSEP Innovative Services for Commercially Sexually Exploited Persons	Applicants must designate the organization(s) and program(s) that will benefit directly from this innovative service, the target population that will benefit, the survivor outcomes that will be different because of this innovation, and any research that supports the effectiveness of the service for survivors of commercial sexual exploitation.
CSEP Community-Based Drop-In Centers	Development, expansion, or enhancement of a drop-in center, which may include a street outreach program for youth and young adults who are victims of crimes that put them at high risk for commercial sexual exploitation. The project must provide tangible and felt-safety, safety planning, individualized and immediate trauma-responsive assessment and case management (including connecting the survivor to needed medical and behavioral health care, legal and other resources) and counseling, support groups, relationship building opportunities in a non-judgmental environment, and assistance with securing emergency and long-term residential services. Center access must reflect days and times when survivors would be most vulnerable to trafficking recruitment or exploitation, and when law enforcement would refer recovered youth to the center for services. Applicant must accept survivor walk-in self-referrals and be accessible, either on-site or through an on-call response, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
CSEP Emergency Residential Placements /Stabilization and Assessment Centers	Development, expansion, or enhancement of a program that provides emergency placement 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year. The program must provide physical safety, safety planning, individualized and immediate trauma-responsive + behavioral healthcare, legal, educational, vocational, and housing resources), community and relationship building opportunities in an empowering, non-judgmental environment, and re-engagement after runaway episodes or other disruptions in placement or services. Programs must identify strategies to promote survivor's tangible safety and felt safety. Clinical, behavioral, milieu, and service planning approaches must follow recognized promising practices or evidence-based models of care. Stabilization and Assessment Centers providing brief placements for highly dysregulated survivors are included in this category.
CSEP Long-Term Residential/Residential Treatment	Development, expansion, or enhancement of a program that provides long-term treatment foster care or residential treatment for both system involved, and non-system involved Commercially Sexually Exploited Youth (CSEY), and residential care for adult survivors. Programs must provide access to intensive case management and wraparound facilitation, 24-hour clinical and behavioral crisis services, safety planning, individualized and immediate trauma-responsive case management (including connecting survivors to needed medical and behavioral healthcare, legal, educational, and vocational resources), community and relationship building opportunities in an empowering, non-judgmental environment, and re-engagement after runaway episodes or other disruptions in placement or services. Residential programs for adults must empower survivors through services that engage survivors in vocational and educational opportunities in the community. Strategies employed in clinical, behavioral, milieu, and all other service planning must follow recognized promising practices or evidence-based programs.
CSEP Specialized Behavioral Health Services	Development or expansion of mental and behavioral health services. Services to this targeted population may be provided within programs serving victims of other crimes and/or other causes of complex trauma. Therapeutic modalities must utilize recognized promising practices or evidence-based interventions. Preference will be given to application of the Wraparound approach, including Wraparound facilitation, and crisis behavioral intervention and support for survivors living at home, in DFPS-approved placement and/or non-system youth without access to public funding for healthcare.

*At PSO's direction, CSE applications go through a special NCTCOG review process.
