Item 15  Resolution Authorizing a Contract with Burns and McDonnell Inc. for the Regional Organic Waste to Fuel Feasibility Study

Edith Marvin, Director of Environment and Development, requested Board authorization to enter a contract with Burns & McDonnell, Inc. for the Regional Organic Waste to Fuel Feasibility Study, in an amount not to exceed $155,000. She explained that the Environmental Protection Agency’s (EPA) Office of Land and Emergency Management announced the availability of $3,000,000 for projects that increase or enhance anaerobic digestion (AD) capacity and infrastructure in the United States, with no cost sharing or matching funds required to be awarded. AD is a natural process where microorganisms convert organic waste, such as food scraps, agricultural waste, and sewage sludge (biosolids), into useful end products: digestates and biogas and is also beneficial because it diverts waste from landfills. One of EPA’s main goals of this funding opportunity is to use AD to manage food waste, which accounts for approximately 22% of the waste in municipal solid waste (MSW) landfills in the U.S, with 31% in North Central Texas. The funding will be used to conduct a regional feasibility study to assess opportunities to expand anaerobic digestion capacity, evaluate potential organic feedstock collection networks, including food waste, and evaluate the air quality, energy production, landfill capacity preserved, and other regional benefits. In addition to the University of Texas at Arlington, who is a subrecipient that will be providing technical services, the remainder of the technical services and products of this grant will be provided by a contractor.

She explained that the Regional Codes Coordinating Committee (RCCC), NCTCOG’s codes advisory committee, reviewed and approved the regional amendments in June 2021 and the NCTCOG Executive Board endorsed the regional amendments at the July 22, 2021, meeting. The 2021 Edition of the International Energy Conservation Code required additional review time and received the RCCC final approval on October 12, 2021. The amendment package can be viewed at https://www.nctcog.org/envir/regional-building-codes/amendments.

Edith Marvin, Director of Environment and Development, requested Board approval to enter a contract extension with Halff Associates, Inc. to perform Cooperating Technical Partnership (CTP) services through December 31, 2024. She explained that North Central Texas Council of Governments (NCTCOG), CTP of the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), has completed several discovery and flood risk mapping studies to support our local government members that require the assistance of contractors to conduct the technical analysis associated with discovery and flood risk mapping studies. She further explained that due to the nature of the CTP projects spanning multiple years, and the current approved contract with Halff Associates, Inc. expiring on December 7, 2023. NCTCOG is seeking authorization for a no-cost extension of the contract term through December 31, 2024. The extension will allow for completion of tasks associated with projects that were awarded by FEMA to NCTCOG for project initiation October 1, 2021, but with a period of performance through December 2024. No additional budget will be required to fund the completion of the tasks and deliverables.
