Article I – Name, Purpose, Responsibilities

The North Central Texas Council of Governments (NCTCOG) is a voluntary association of, by and for local governments, established to assist in regional planning. NCTCOG serves the 16-county area of Collin, Dallas, Denton, Ellis, Erath, Hood, Hunt, Johnson, Kaufman, Navarro, Palo Pinto, Parker, Rockwall, Somervell, Tarrant, and Wise Counties; with membership including counties, cities, school districts, and special districts. NCTCOG has been designated by the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality as the Regional Water Quality Planning Agency for North Central Texas and, as such, is responsible for developing the Water Quality Management Plan (WQMP). Since 1970, NCTCOG has been funded by the TCEQ through 604(b) grant funds. The Water Quality Planning grant program provides funding to perform regional comprehensive water quality management planning activities as described in Section 604(b) of the federal Clean Water Act. These funds provide the means for NCTCOG to identify critical issues facing the North Central Texas region and coordinate its efforts with cities, counties, and utility authorities.

As a part of this program, the Water Resources Council (WRC) was established in 1979 and advises NCTCOG's Executive Board on both technical and policy issues related to water resources. The committee reviews technical issues, oversees the regional water quality management planning process, and performs technical reviews of water-related grant applications. The WRC serves as an advisory committee and provides support and advice to NCTCOG's Executive Board on methods to conserve and protect valuable water resources and plan for regional water quality and water resources management.

In addition to the specific duties outlined below, the WRC primarily assists NCTCOG in development and submission of the annual Water Quality Management Plan (WQMP).

Subject to other tasks being directed by NCTCOG's Executive Board, as the need arises, the specific duties of the WRC include:

1. To serve as a regional forum to provide input, review, comment, and planning in support of NCTCOG's Executive Board related to water resource issues that impact the North Central Texas region.

2. To assist NCTCOG staff in evaluating goals, objectives and plan recommendations, and defining problems and potential solutions in the development and review of regional water quality planning.

3. To hold meetings for conducting regional water resources business based on regionally identified needs of local government members.
4. To review and provide input on Clean Water State Revolving Fund loan applications to ensure conformance with the latest WQMP for North Central Texas.

5. To perform other tasks as requested by NCTCOG’s Executive Board.
